DEL HOLSTER BAG BY GALCO

3» This is the go anywhere bag, crafted from full-grain, glove-tanned leather. The fully lined, divided main compartment includes pockets for accessories and a zippered pocket for small items. THE WRIST BAG FROM EVERYDAY TACTICAL

4» For people that do not like to carry a large purse, this compact bag fits mid-sized weapons and other necessities all in a small package. Carry on your wrist with the strap or take the strap off and use it as a clutch. So cute! Comes in black, white and pink patent, as well as in silver and matte black faux leather. MSRP $59

Going armed does not mean you must give up fashion. There are currently plenty of top-notch concealed carry purses on the market. Surely there are one or two that will match your style. And like all shopping, half the fun is in the search.

THE COCKTAIL FROM EVERYDAY TACTICAL

5» Even at dinner parties or other more formal events, you should be able to carry your weapon. This bag fits most small weapons, including subcompact Glocks (27 /29), and similar guns. The Cocktail bag comes in black leather, black faux croc, as well as black patent. It has a silver tone chain strap that can be removed in order to use the purse as a clutch. The leather bag also comes with a second, leather strap. MSRP $101

For example, when walking through a nighttime parking garage, a person can put the strong hand around a pistol grip and handle car keys with the weak hand. The weapon can even be fired from within the bag; it just has to be withdrawn partially from the internal holster to clear the trigger. Some weapons, such as hammerless revolvers, can be fired in that way more than once without jamming.

As with belt holsters, more than one purse holster might be desired for different outfits. Nearly all the current makers produce both upscale and casual variants. Just keep looking you will find the purse for you.

Since most concealed carry purses have removable holster inserts, one could mix and match bags and sidearms to fit the need of the day. Prices range from $59 for the daily casuals to $4200 for the exotic skin editions.

Gotta gun up YOUR sleeve?

This groundbreaking underarm holster will change the way you carry forever! It conceals without a jacket, works under a short sleeved shirt, and rests clear of seats and seat belts allowing quick access. $34.95 + S&H
